University ROTC said in trouble; officials confirm number problem

The West Texas State University ROTC unit, with sagging enrollment, is in danger of being placed on probation and possibly eventually eliminated, the Army Times reported this week.

The Times, a privately-owned and operated newspaper, listed WTSU's unit as among 150 such units at universities which have enrollments below Department of Defense standards.

University and ROTC officials confirmed this week that the unit's enrollment is at a critical stage, but said they had received no official word concerning any action the Army or Defense Department might take affecting the future of the unit.

The Times reported that the major Defense Department standard for elimination of unproductive units is the number of ROTC students entering the junior year. The minimum, according to the Times, is between 17 and 20 students in that phase of the program.

"DoD activities call for a below-minimum school to be placed on probation for one year and then be eliminated from the program if it continues to fall below enrollment standards," the newspaper says.

Dr. Ray A. Malzahn, academic vice president at WTSU, confirmed that enrollment in WTSU's ROTC program "has reached a critical stage."

He said he had seen nothing official from the Department of the Army concerning the enrollment in the program and had heard nothing from Army officials concerning the possible elimination of the program.

LTC Charles Laakso, professor of military science at WTSU, said the program is not currently on probation and is not on "evaluation" status.

He said the commanding general of the ROTC region was on the campus in January and met with university officials but it was not recommended that the program be placed on evaluation or probationary status.

"There's always the possibility of phase-out," Laakso said. "We're required to produce an average of 15 officers per year and they look at a four-year span."

He said the average will drop this year because of low enrollments in the past several years, but that he expects 17 officers will be commissioned through the program next year.

"There's no probability the program will be dis-established," he said.

Laakso said the program now has 67 students, down somewhat from the fall enrollment but up from enrollment for spring 1975.

During the height of the Vietnam War and the military draft in the late 1960s, the ROTC program at the university had an enrollment of well over 300 students.

"There's no one way to pin down the loss of enrollment," Laakso said. "There are a number of factors — the end of the draft, the end of the mandatory nature of ROTC."

He said a major problem on the campus has been the lack of information for the student body about the ROTC program and what it has to offer.

Nevertheless, he said, the cadre of the unit is now carrying out an active recruitment program aimed at sophomore students and at freshmen.

Right now, he said, the cadre is Marci Davis, a guard for the Canyon Girl Eagles, goes up to try to block a two-point effort by a Midway Pantherette during Saturday night's state championship game in Austin. Lisa Cathey, another guard, 15, comes up fast to aid in the defense. The Eagles lost the state crown to Midway by a 64-59 margin.

High winds on Tuesday stirred the dust from this tractor on a stubble field north of Canyon, before it brought in a new cold front Wednesday. Even with the colder weather, the prospects for moisture to help hold the topsoil appeared slim this week.

Lower paid due higher raises

Pay hikes ranging from 7½ to 10 percent next fiscal year for city employees are included in the preliminary budget, according to city administrators Glen Metcalf and Tom Plumlee.

Every employee will receive a five percent raise on the anniversary date of employment. In addition, raises varying from 2½ to 10 percent will go into effect on April 1.

The biggest increase will be the beginning salary for new city employees, Plumlee said. Entry salaries will be raised 10 percent, if the budget proposals are adopted as written now.

The lowest salary a new city employee will make under the new schedule will be $402, Plumlee said. The lowest beginning salary now is $365 a month.

The new scale is a revision of the present pay schedule, said Metcalf. Two new pay steps have been added at the top end of the scale and all city employees have been reclassified and reassigned, he said.

Because of the reassignment and reclassification, the raises to go into effect April 1 will vary from individual to individual, Metcalf said. Employees will be informed of their raise after the budget receives final approval, he said.

A formal public hearing is set March 22, and, presumably, the budget will be adopted following the hearing.

As a general rule, Metcalf confirmed, most of the higher raises will go to employees on the lower end of the pay scale. This is the first time city salaries have been raised that way, Plumlee said. More commonly, employees are granted a flat percentage.

Total salaries requested are up $45,949 over last year. If approved, $466,495 will go for salaries out of a total budgeted expenditure of $1,209,949.

Flynn, Ratliff, Johnson, Nelson

Four Eagles on all-district team

Three Canyon High School Eagles have been named to the District 1-AAA all-district basketball team.

They are John Johnson, a unanimous choice for the team for the second straight year; Hoss Ratliff and Mike Flynn.

Mark Nelson has been named to the all-district honorable mention team.

Johnson is a 6-4 senior, Ratliff is a 6-2 senior and Flynn is a 5-11 junior. Nelson is a 5-9 senior.

Perryton also placed three men on the all-district team. Muleshoe had two on the team, Dumas had one and Levelland had one.

Coach B.B. Kendrick said the all-district selections are made by the district teams' coaches.

"To me this is the highest honor a kid can get," he said. "They are selected on the way they played. All-state selections are made on the recommendations of someone who never saw them play."

The Eagles were district champions this year.

Johnson is the fourth all-time scoring leader in CHS history with 538 points for the season or an 18.5 points per game average. He hit 55 per cent from the field — "the best of any shooter I've ever had," according to Kendrick — and 70 per cent from the free throw line.

Johnson also led the team in rebounds during the year with 10 per game average. Johnson missed three games due to injuries.

Flynn had a 13-points per game average for the season but averaged around 16 points per game during district play. He hit 49 per cent from the field and 55 per cent from the foul line. He had a total of 388 points

Ratliff is given credit by Kendrick for sparking the Eagle district title win. He scored 288 points during the season for a 10.1 points per game average, but Kendrick said he hit 18 points per game average during district play. Ratliff hit 47 per cent of his field goal attempts and 58 per cent of his free throw attempts. He missed the bulk of two district games due to injuries.

Nelson led the team in assists with 102 for the year or 4-5 assists per game. During district, though, he averaged 8 per game.

"The key to his selection was ball handling and getting the ball to the open man," Kendrick said.

The coach credited Nelson with breaking the second Perryton game wide open when he hit 14 points.

For the year, Nelson hit 196 points for a 7.5 points per game average. He hit 42 per cent from the field and 64 per cent from the foul line.

Others in the top 10 for all-district were Lorenzo Childers of Levelland, Jimmy Hulsey of Dumas, Carey Sudduth and Tommy St. Clair of Muleshoe, Roger Reimer and Gayland Irwin of Perryton.

Dee Griffin hot over heat bill

Randall County Commissioner Dee Griffin is losing his cool over the heating bill for the county's new Amarillo courthouse annex.

"The electric bill is quite high and this has not been a rough winter at all," Griffin said this week.

After County Auditor Betty Hodges received the county's electric bill for February recently from Southwestern Public Service Co., Griffin conducted a bit of an investigation on his own to check on the utility usage at the building.

And, he asked electric company officials to check the building for ways to cut down on electricity usage.

What got Griffin upset to begin with is the skyrocketing utility bill for the new half-million dollar annex at Georgia and the Canyon E-Way in Amarillo.

For the month ending Jan. 29, the electric bill for the annex was $793. For the period from Jan. 29 to Feb. 19, the bill was for $918.

Even at the $793 rate, the annex is costing more than three to four times as much to operate than was the county's old courthouse annex on South Bowie. The highest electrical bill for the old annex during its operation was $262, according to the auditor's records.

Last week, Griffin asked SWPS Co. officials to examine the building and they recommended a six-point use reduction program:

*Disengage the thermostat in the public area of the building to reduce the mixing of air from units zoned to heat and those zoned to cool.

*All thermostats be set at the same temperature — either 72 or 73 degrees — because some areas are currently heating while others are cooling.

*That the contractor check the mechanical system to ensure dampers are operating as they should to circulate air.

*That outside lighting of the Officials should observe new policies, judge says

While Randall County commissioners really have no power over them, county elected officials should follow as closely as possible the tenets of a new personnel policy for employees, County Judge Woody Pond said this week.

Commissioners spent two hours discussing a new and more detailed policy for county employees, including everything from coffee break times to vacation and sick leave, during their regular Monday session. They have not yet formally approved the policy.

Pond said following the meeting commissioners cannot make county elected officials, some of whom show up for work well after 8 a.m. each day, follow the policy.

"The polls cover that," he said. "There's not a damn thing we can do about it. But, I think if they enforce the policy they should live by it. I would suggest all employees of Randall County follow it as close as possible."

The new policy, which goes far beyond any policy ever before instituted by commissioners, establishes a check system in the county auditor's office to keep tabs on the absences of employees in various county offices.

Such absences as sick leave, absences for death in the family, vacation and any other are to be reported to the auditor's office under the policy.

The policy says the normal courthouse work week will consist of 40 hours and no employees shall work more than 40 hours unless commissioners give prior approval.

If the policy is approved, each employee will be entitled to five working days of sick leave per year and may accumulate sick leave to a total of 30 working

City buying two wells

Bids for two new water wells will include alternate bids for several test wells into the deeper Santa Rosa formation.

City commissioners Monday night approved the advertising for bids for the two wells to be drilled in the Umbarger field and asked city manager Glen Metcalf to include alternate bids for test holes. One test well into the Santa Rosa has been drilled already, with the engineering report indicating that the deeper formation contains a good water source. But city engineering consultant Bill McMorries has advised several more test wells before the city attempts to tap the Santa Rosa water, Metcalf told the commissioners earlier.

The two new wells are expected to be in use by the summer peak season, Metcalf said Monday night. Commissioners have included $120,000 in the preliminary budget for next year for drilling the wells and linking them to the water distribution system.

The commissioners also instructed Metcalf to prepare a resolution approving a name change for the city land surrounding the sewer treatment plant to Southeast Park, setting up funds at both Canyon banks for contributions to the park and allotting $10,000 for the immediate construction of two baseball

De-annexation, procedures seen key school bond issues

The de-annexation of Canyon School District property and the procedure used by the Canyon School Board in deciding what new schools to build were key factors in the recent defeat of a CISD bond issue proposal.

Those two issues emerged as the major ones in a Canyon News poll of residents who voted against the Feb. 17 bond issue election. The poll was published in the Feb. 21 issue of The News and received 113 responses, or about 10 percent of the 1400 votes cast against the issue in Canyon precincts.

The poll has listed 11 possible issues which might have led to the defeat of the proposal, a $5.5 million proposition, and asked those who cast negative votes to check the appropriate issue.

Returned polls showed the major issues involved the de-annexation of properties west of Coulter Road in the district and the procedures used by the Canyon board in determining what and where to build.

Eighty-one respondents checked they would favor de-annexation of the property from the Canyon district for annexation by the Amarillo district. Eighty-one also checked that they didn't like the school board's procedure.

Other key issues, according to the poll count, were the total costs of the schools and the desire to have Canyon schools built in Canyon. According to the poll, only a handful of respondents feel that new schools aren't needed in the district.

One respondent was not happy with any of the poll questions: "Not any of your questions lead to my reasons for voting no to the bond issue," he wrote on a typewritten sheet. "Those are child questions."

A large number of the polls carried written comments or attached letters.

Some comments from the polls concerning the Clean slate given city by jurors

Randall County grand jurors found no criminal activity involved in a recent Canyon City Commission executive session, Dist. Atty. Randall Sherrod said late Monday.

Sherrod said he was told the grand jury's feelings shortly before the jury went home about 6:30 p.m. Monday after a day-long session.

The Canyon News had presented evidence to the jurors during much of the afternoon, contending the city commission violated the Texas Open Meetings Law during a Feb. 16 executive session.

Laurie Telfair, News reporter, and Troy F. Martin, News publisher, appeared before the grand jury during the afternoon. City Attorney Elton Cox also appeared.

Springlike weather this week heralded tree pruning time for Luther Kiker as he wielded a saw to remove unwanted branches from an elm on Eighth Avenue.

Schools staff begins newsletter for patrons

In the wake of two bond issue election defeats in three months, the Canyon School District has begun a regular monthly newsletter to parents and other interested residents.

But, Schools Supt. Jerry Jacobs says the newsletter attempt is connected with the bond issue efforts only in that the election failures pointed up the need for improved communication between schools and taxpayers.

The first issue of the newsletter, called Incentive, went out to parents last week under a third class mailing permit. The 8½ x 11 sheet is printed on both sides by a school staff member.

"A lot of people have told us they don't have enough communication to know about school programs," Jacobs said. "In addition to what (the newspaper) does maybe with sending the newsletter to each of the parents and any other interested resident we can give a synopsis of what we're doing."

The first newsletter contains information on public school week, the upcoming Spelling Bee, high school basketball programs, textbook adoptions, art contest winners, community education classes, new faculty members, spring vacation, CHS plays and productions, and test exemptions.

Jacobs first made public the possibility of publishing a newsletter after the electorate in early December voted down a proposed $6 million bond issue program for construction of a new elementary and a new high school.

He said Tuesday the school staff had been discussing the possibility of publishing such a letter since last spring.

Jacobs said he receives copies of similar newsletters from a dozen other school districts in the state.

"They indicate response has been favorable," he said. "I guess every governmental entity hears 'we don't know what's going on'."

The newsletter will be published once a month.

An in-class play showing the important events and peoples of America's history was presented by fifth grade students of Room 213 at Rex Reeves Elementary School this week. The play involves students (with back to camera) who visualize the procession of the nation's history as portrayed by fellow students from left: Rocky Bashaw as George Washington, Hal McDonough as Jean Du Salole, Cary Garrett as Abraham Lincoln, Patty Boehning as Betsy Ross, Pam Hinds as Massasoif, Diane Byers as Frederick Douglass, and Pam Parker as Miss Liberty. A number of other classmates were also involved in the historical review which was presented by the class for parents and other classes.

Prof. heads science group

The new president-elect of the Texas Academy of Sciences is Dr. James Underwood, professor of geology at West Texas State University.

Underwood was selected in a state-wide balloting of the 1000-member organization in February. He will assume the presidency in 1977-78 at next spring's annual meeting at Baylor University.

One of Underwood's goals for the interdisciplinary organization is to "increase membership, especially among the social sciences and interested laymen.

"Right now we are facing a critical financial deficit due to the escalation of printing costs," Underwood noted.

The academy publishes the "Texas Journal of Science," a scientific quarterly containing research papers and reports, and a biannual newsletter containing regional science news.

It also assists in regional science fairs and research grants for high school science students.

As president-elect, Underwood's job will be to oversee the publication of the program for next year's annual meeting.

"As the 1977-78 president, I will preside over the executive council and try to enhance the function of the academy," Underwood said.

His duties as past-president in 1978-79 will be to prepare the slate of officers for the next election.

Underwood served as the 1973-74 vice-president of the earth sciences section. The academy is divided into ten sections of interests, including mathematical sciences, physical sciences, biological sciences and social sciences.

The purposes of the academy are to stimulate scientific work, promote science and science education at all levels, to publish reports of scientific investigations and encourage a close relationship among those engaged in scientific work.

Nostalgic art at museum

Nostalgic oil paintings of the multi-talented Texas artist John Bruce Erwin of Dallas will be on display in the Little South Gallery of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum until March 28.

Other art exhibits open are paintings in various media from the museum's own collections and Indian rugs and blankets.

Erwin's first introduction to art was as a University of Texas architect major, where he took up watercolor painting as a relief from the rigors of drafting. He used his time during World War II while stationed in the Pacific to refine his hobby, and made the California Watercolor Society Annual Show.

In 1956 he became interested in violin making, and was an informal pupil of the late E.H. Sangster, widely-known Dallas maker. Erwin has participated in three Henry Wieniawski violin makers competitions in Poznan, Poland, and has two violins in Russia at the Moscow Conservatory.

The responsibilities of marriage, a growing architectural business and violin making made Erwin give up painting for a few years until he met Dallas artist Reveau Bassett, who encouraged him to work in oils. Erwin's involvement in architecture has resulted in many pieces of old Dallas and surrounding area memorabilia being recorded in oils. The colors used reflect his familiarity with and long use of watercolor.

"What I paint are things that provoke people to think back to a happy time in their lives or the lives of some loved one," said Erwin in a recent edition of the Dallas Morning News' "Scene" Sunday magazine. "I don't paint anything that does not make me feel good."

More displays set for festival

More displays, a poster contest and an awards ceremony have been added to the "Windows to the Past" festival planned on the Square May 14-15.

The Canyon fire department will set up a display of fire fighting equipment on the east parking lot of the courthouse, committee co-chairman Mary Alice Hines announced this week.

Club members of the Antique Car Club and the Model T Club will display their old cars on the parking lot adjoining Marshall's Garage and the Young Farmers of America, in conjunction with the Farm Bureau, will have a display of old farm equipment set up on the Southwestern Bell parking lot.

The United Campus Ministry is arranging displays from the churches in the old bank building, Mrs. Hines said.

A poster contest for youngsters at Rex Reeves is planned by the Rex Reeves PTA and winners will be announced at an awards ceremony set for 2 p.m. on May 15. Several other Bicentennial presentations will be made then, Mrs. Hines said.

A letter outline details of the window exhibits has been mailed this week to merchants donating window space and families who will set up exhibits from area pioneers, Mrs. Hines said.

In charge of the letter are Jane Stephens, Kathy Glazener and Mrs. Hines. Most of the displays are planned for the 15th, she said, but some families will have their exhibits in place on the 14th.

A luncheon sponsored by the Home Demonstration Council will be served in the community center. Lunch prices have not yet been announced.

Seven earn stipends

Seven West Texas State University students have received scholarships from the WTSU Computer Information Systems (CIS) Department for the spring semester.

Jim Johnson, a sophomore from Abilene, received a $200 Atlantic Richfield scholarship; Rhonda Schuelke, senior from Midland, a $100 Texaco scholarship; and Glenn Killgore, Jr. of Spearman, a $200 AMOCO scholarship.

Others were Clara Looten, Panhandle junior, a $100 Atlantic Richfield scholarship; Vickie Stanislao, Amarillo junior, a $100 AMOCO scholarship; Martha Abraham, Amarillo junior, a $100 Texaco scholarship; and Donna Moerbe, Wilson senior, a $100 Atlantic Richfield scholarship.

"These awards are based on scholarship and not need," said Dr. Philip Gensler, CIS Department head. "These are good students."

To be eligible for the scholarships, students must be a CIS major, have completed at least one CIS course at WT, have a minimum CIS grade point average of 2.0 on a 3.0 scale, and an overall average of 1.8 and be enrolled this spring.

Ritter seeks city post

Former city commissioner George Ritter has filed for a new term to the city commission.

George Ritter, an assistant professor of political science at West Texas State University, is seeking the seat to be vacated by present commissioner Jim Christopher. Four others have filed for the same position.

A native of Missouri, Ritter was educated at the University of Arkansas and the University of Missouri and came to WTSU in 1957. He served four terms as a city commissioner, ending in 1968.

He presently is chairman of the Canyon Parks and Recreation Board and was recently appointed to the Planning and Zoning Board. He is chairman of the sixth precinct of the Democratic Party.

Ritter has been active in youth recreation programs since he moved to Canyon. He helped organize and was one of the first coaches of the Babe Ruth League here and helped construct the present baseball diamonds.

He filed for the commission at the urging of friends, Ritter said, but pointed out that, as a political scientist, he has a professional interest in government as well as having a personal interest to serve.

Ritter said he sees as major concerns for the commissioners in the future, the continued pursuit of additional water rights and development of additional recreation facilities.

Area cancer meeting held

Three locals were involved in an area meeting of the American Cancer Society at Lubbock's Hilton Hill during the weekend.

The meetings were devoted to discussions of fundraising crusades throughout the state and the viewing of films which will be available to the public this year for public education efforts.

Attending from Canyon were: Dr. Paige Carruth, area public education committee chairman; Dr. Myron Dees, district public education committee chairman; and Mary Alice Hines, area public information committee chairman and chairman for the Randall County Unit.

The next meeting of the Randall County Unit of the American Cancer Society will be a board meeting and luncheon at the Yum Yum Tree Restaurant on March 18.

WHAT ARE PLANTAR WARTS?

When you walk on hard dirty surfaces, you are exposing your feet to a virus infection which produces plantar warts—beign tumors appearing on the outer skin layer of the foot's walking surface. They can cause discomfort and pain. Often they can penetrate deep and self-treatment with regular over-the-counter remedies or cutting will not cure the condition.

Professional attention is required to effectively remove these warts or to keep them from spreading to other parts of the foot. But, your best protection is prevention. Don't walk around outside without shoes.

Happy Cowboys win bi-district crown

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THE HAPPY COWBOYS won Bi-District on Tuesday evening in Levelland by defeating Bledsoe 59 to 56.

Happy Cowboys scored first in the game and were never behind. The first quarter ended 16 to 14. During the second quarter the Cowboys pulled away with a 10 point lead and the score ended 33 to 23.

The third quarter ended with the Cowboys leading 47 to 36. Mark Peters, senior, fouled out during the first minute of the fourth period. Bledsoe scored 20 points during that period, the most scores they had made in any one quarter. But the game ended 59 to 56.

Three Cowboys scored 14 points each (unofficially, that is) and those were Mark Peters, Brent Morrison and Vincent Venhaus. Tim Moudy scored four, Larry McKelvey, six and J. T. Henry scored seven. Danny Bell was out of the game because of illness.

The game proved a thriller — especially in those final minutes.

It was well worth the trip down and a large number of people from Happy and even formerly from Happy were on hand to back the Cow boys.

Ann and Greg and Bill Looney were among the spectators. Greg and Karron Pearson and Karron's parents were also there. Estallee Knight and husband were there and numerous ex-students dotted the crowd. And were we late getting home!

Article published

Two members of the Chemistry Department of West Texas State University, Joel D. Oliver and Peder E. Rush, have published an article, "The Crystal Structure of Methyl (hydrotris (pyrazol-l-yl) borato) carbonyl platinum (II)" in the January, 1976 issue of the "Journal of Organometallic Chemistry."

The journal is international in scope and relates research into the syntheses, identification and structures of compounds containing metal atoms bonded to organic substances. The title compound was synthesized by Professor H.C. Clark of the University of Western Ontaria and was sent to West Texas State University in order to understand its unusual properties.

Dr. Oliver is an assistant professor in the Department of Chemistry at West Texas State University. Mr. Rush is a former graduate student in the Department of Chemistry and is currently employed by Texaco, Inc., at their Port Arthur, Texas plant where he is involved in research in their petroleum-based lubricants.

The research received final support from the Robert A. Welch foundation of Houston, Texas.

attempting to recruit students for what the Army calls its two-year program, a program wherein a sophomore student attends a 6-week basic summer campus at a military installation and pursues ROTC studies at the university during the junior and senior year.

Efforts are also being made, Laakso said, to inform incoming freshmen about the ROTC program.

The Army Times lists two Texas universities as being currently on probation and still having enrollments below DoD norms — Texas Christian University and Rice University.

Six other Texas colleges are listed by the Times as having enrollments below DoD standards and prime for probationary status — Bishop College, Sam Houston State, UT-Arlington, Stephen F. Austin State, Tarleton State, and Texas A&I.

Boys find pot seeds

When two curious Canyon youngsters opened a brown paper bag they found in a field Sunday, they thought they could identify the plastic-wrapped seeds.

David Embrey, 13, and Chris Durden, 10, decided the seeds looked like marijuana seeds Embrey had seen once in a science class at school.

They flagged down Sgt. Jack McGee and Patrolman Joe Fiola and turned the bag and its contents over to the policemen. The boys told the policemen they found the bag under the stop sign on the 900 block of 28th Street.

According to police, the youngsters had found a small quantity of marijuana seeds.

The policy alters a previous commission ruling concerning the adjustment of salaries. Last year commissioners agreed to allow salary adjustments for employees at any time during the year. The policy calls for salaries to be adjusted on the second Monday of October each year for the final time that year.

Another change in the old policy reflected in the new one is allowance for seminar or workshop attendance of 15 cents per mile for travel and $40 per day for expenses. The old rate was $30 per diem. In addition, under the new policy commissioners will authorize payment of any registration fee for a workshop.

A new paragraph added to the policy requires that a department head must give an employee two weeks notice if the employee is to be terminated. Likewise, the employee is to give two weeks notice if voluntarily terminating.

In other business Monday, commissioners approved a contract with Jake Diel Construction Co. for paving the parking lot area at the new South Amarillo courthouse annex. Diel bid $3 per square yard for the project, which will total about $6800. Other bidders were J. Lee Milligan at $3.07 per square yard and L.A. Fuller & Sons at $3.20 per square yard.

A new draftsman for the county tax assessor-collector's office was also hired by commissioners. The new employee lives in Potter County.

George Ritter, chairman of the city parks and recreation board, asked for the commission approval before the park board took any further action.

Ritter reported that the parks board plans to develop the city land in the southeast section of town on a step-by-step basis to eventually include picnic areas around a lake, ball diamonds and tennis courts. The diamonds for Little League and Babe Ruth Leagues are the first step, Ritter said, and he estimated the total cost at about $6,500 for materials. The parks board has abandoned the idea of developing a master plan, which would have probably required a bond issue, Ritter said.

The resolution is expected to be approved on March 22 when the board meets to adopt the budget.

With Commissioner J. Pat Stephens opposing, the board passed an ordinance restricting parking to one hour along the south side of Fourth Avenue between 23rd and 24th Streets.

building be reduced.

*Since 60 percent of the building is glass, at least some of the glass should be draped.

*Reduce office lighting on the south and southwest exposure during daytime hours.

The SWPS Co. officials say the building is now using about 80 kilowatts of electrical load and should be using only 50 kilowatts.

Griffin said he will check with the building's architect to determine what measures might be feasible to reduce energy consumption.

Polls. . .

de-annexation of property or construction of schools outside of Canyon include:

"'Ok to build new elementary in Amarillo, but build secondary schools in Canyon only!.'"

"'Any new residential areas that will become a part of the City of Amarillo should be in the Amarillo School District. We are not against bonds to build needed schools but don't want to assume tax loads that should be shared by others.'"

"'I am opposed to paying for the education of South Amarillo residents' children, whose incomes far exceed my own $10,000 per year.'"

"'The boundary line between Amarillo Ind. School District and Canyon ISD should be settled by de-annexing certain portions to Amarillo.'"

"'Yes, we need our schools, but not in Amarillo, not at the price you suggested.'"

"'Farmers, ranchers, Canyon area land-owners and residents are being asked to educate Amarillo's children at their expense and if they don't, their own children will suffer through overcrowding and poor student-teacher ratios. We get nothing from Amarillo, let them educate their own children.'"

Some respondents also questioned the desirability of having two districts formed from the current Canyon school district, an idea which was first made public by Supt. Jerry Jacobs during a speech prior to the Dec. 9 bond issue vote. Several letters to the News editor have recently suggested a similar approach. Comments concerning this proposal include:

"'The way the votes ran in the two elections seems obvious evidence that Canyon and South Amarillo residents have irreconcilable differences. The only solution to me would be to form two school districts, possible with McCormick Road as dividing line. If South Amarillo won't petition itself out of the Canyon district, perhaps Canyon should petition itself away from South Amarillo.

"'I think if Canyon doesn't want to de-annex the property in the northern part of the school district, they should at least divide the school district into perhaps 'North Randall Cty. Sch. Distr.' and 'South Randall Cty. Sch. Distr.'"

Other respondents questioned the quality of education in the current Canyon schools:

"The so-called quality education we are supposed to have now is a joke. This is what the educators would like us to believe. Start with quality first, then the buildings."

Others questioned the board's tactics and decisions in regard to the bond issue vote:

"'Since the dress code borders on gross ignorance, any decision Jacobs and the board makes has to be questioned.'"

"'Board needs to trust public, open process for decision-making and planning.'"

"'I do not like the dictatorial attitude of the school board.'"

"'I don't like the arrogant attitude of the board and school officials.'"

"'Bulldozer approach.'"

For other respondents, money was a key issue:

"'Canyon has a champagne appetite on a beer salary.'"

"'I am a farmer and I am already taxed to near death.'"

"'Rooms do not need to be carpeted. Gyms are not needed for elementary students.'"

"'Too many frills and extras. Leave off the gyms, tennis courts, dressing rooms — education only — no athletics.'"

"'The tax raise of 26 per cent was too much.'"

"'Schools yes. But not recreation or Cadillac type buildings.'"

"'Let's get our priorities in order. Education not athletics is important.'"

Still other respondents praised the approach suggested after the defeat of the Dec. 9 bond issue vote by Board Member Ed Wieck. Wieck had proposed immediate negotiations with AISD for de-annexation of lands in the north part of the district and a bond issue for construction of an elementary school only.

"'I would like to thank Mr. Wieck for his effort to arrive at a workable solution, that we could have had new schools. I resent the other's obstinancy— all or nothing.'"

"'Mr. Wieck seems to be a very wise fellow in his line of thinking and yet his recommendations apparently were not considered. Why? Because they weren't feasible or because they didn't appeal to Mr. Jacobs and a couple of the board members big ideas? I believe a bond issue will pass but not until some attitudes change.'"

Results of the poll will be turned over to the Canyon board for their consideration.

THE TOP 3 CORN HYBRIDS FOR THE OKLAHOMA-TEXAS PANHANDLE

Everyone knows the top corn hybrid for this area. PIONEER® brand 3369A is the most planted hybrid in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Not everyone realizes, however, that there are other PIONEER hybrids that do as well as this famous one . . . even beat it in some respects. You should consider them, too. They'll help you get exactly the right hybrid mix for whatever mother nature has in store for this season:

PIONEER BRAND 3369A

This hybrid is grown on more acres of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico corn land than any other variety. It has set yield records year after year. 3369A has excellent seedling vigor, good roots, stalks and ear retention and excellent tolerance to blight, plus it dries fast and shells easily.

New PIONEER BRAND 3321

An exciting new hybrid that has an even greater yield potential than 3369A. The added yield potential comes, in part, from a little later maturity while having the root and stalk strength to stand until harvest. It stays green later, too. This one can add significant profit to your corn crop.

New PIONEER BRAND 3780

Another new, good yielding hybrid. It's a little earlier than 3369A with exceptionally fast dry down. It has made from $9 to $12 more profit per acre than ordinary hybrids because of its fast dry down. It has long slender ears on small, hard cobs . . . really great for combining.

Spring weather inspires neighborhood

By KAROLYN FARMER

NORMALLY THE FARMER family is behind on just about everything. But the beautiful spring weather last weekend inspired us — it's probably the first time we ever did our spring house cleaning in February.

Most of our neighbors had the same kind of inspiration. And until the next wind blows in some more trash, we are in contention for the "Clean Neighborhood" Award.

We may be Farmers in name only, but we could sure use some rain, too. I'd like to add my hearty "Amen" to Mary Neal Henry's reminder to pray for the much-needed moisture.

TEXAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS Week began with a "bang" at Gene Howe on Monday. The program presented by the third graders for the PTA Meeting was a Bicentennial salute entitled "America, 1776-1976."

The children all looked precious and performed beautifully. One of the inspiring songs, "Happy Birthday, America," was written especially for the occasion by Gene Howe music teacher, Margie Phillips.

Darlene Plank graciously offered to make the lovely red, white and blue corsages that were presented to Margie Phillips and the third grade teachers, Johnnie Gordon, Jerrie Langen and Gerry Woodward.

Special guests at the PTA Meeting were the candidates who are seeking election in the upcoming May 3rd school board election. Nearly all of the men and women running for both the CISD School Board and the Randall County Board of School Trustees attended the meeting.

We really appreciate their interest, as well as the opportunity to meet each one of them personally.

The most important item of business conducted during the Monday night meeting was the election of PTA officers for 1976-77.

Elected to serve next year were: Sarah Edwards, President; Sherrie Cates, First Vice President; Marion Marrs, Second Vice President; Barbara Wood, Third Vice President; Gayle Betty, Recording Secretary; Linda Ford, Corresponding Secretary; Linda Robinson, Treasurer; Farris Ann Morrison, Reporter; Shirley Cates, Historian; and Judy Stubblefield, Parliamentarian.

Following the meeting, the parents and other family members who attended enjoyed touring the school and viewing a special exhibit of arts and crafts made by the Gene Howe students.

Each child who entered his art work in the School Art Fair will be awarded a special ribbon from the PTA.

The Posting of Colors for the meeting was by the 4th Grade Camp Fire Girls: Darla Campbell, Laura Cobb, Sheri Hickerson, Kathy Rinne and Kedra Sutton. Their leader is Ellen Hickerson, assisted by Katie Rinne. Helen Cobb is the group sponsor.

Mr. Jan Meier gave the invocation following the flag ceremony.

FORTY BOYS AND girls competed in the Gene Howe Spelling Bee on Tuesday, Feb. 24th. All of the young people were finalists from each of the 4th, 5th and 6th grade homerooms.

The eight finalists of the Spelling Bee were: Judy Nuzum, Russell Schmidt, Kevin Wait, Renee Judkins, Gemma Johnson, Glenn Storlie, Jeff Knight and Shellye Jobe. Sharon Henwood and Jay Tipps will serve as alternates.

These boys and girls, along with the Rex Reeves finalists, will compete in the County Spelling Bee junior events at CJHS on March 10th.

SINCERE SYMPATHIES ARE extended to the family of Mr. Sam A. Walker, Sr. Mr. Walker died last Tuesday in an Amarillo hospital, and services were held the following Saturday.

Mr. Walker was the father of Mrs. Paul (Viola) Brohlin who is also a resident of the Gene Howe area.

AUDREY AND DON Shirk, Dawn and Danny, recently moved to the Gene Howe area from Lakewood, Colo. Don Shirk is now employed as maintenance supervisor at IBP. He is originally from Michigan, while Audrey is a native of Idaho.

The Shirk family formerly lived in Huntington Beach, Calif. before moving to Colorado.

Dawn Shirk is 12 years old and is in Mrs. Parsons' 6th grade class. Danny, who is in Mrs. Gordon's 3rd grade room, is eight years old.

Audrey says that even though they miss the beautiful mountains of Colorado, they are learning to like being Texans. She is especially impressed by the friendliness of the people she has already met.

CUB SCOUT PACK 130 celebrated the 46th Birthday of Scouting last Thursday night with a Blue and Gold Banquet.

About 240 people attended the covered dish affair at Gene Howe cafeteria. The eight dens of Pack 130 each decorated tables for their parents and guests.

Centerpieces, placemats and placecards included the Bicentennial colors. The boys had made flags, terrariums, Liberty Bells, drums and miniature "White Houses" to carry out their decorating theme.

Cubmaster Bill Edwards welcomed the group and introduced the special guests for the event, Bert Day, Troop 97 Scoutmaster, and George and Carolyn West, Scout Commissioners. The invocation was led by Jan Meier.

Sherrie Cates presented awards to each Den Mother and Committee-man. The Den Leaders are Sarah Edwards, Phyllis Hicks, Pat Meier, Pat Seth, Rita Erdman, Gerri Norrod, Charles Pender, Virginia Winters, Mary Wilcox, June Vanlandingham, Evelyn Foster, Jolene Williams, Cherry Winters and Carol Triplett.

Committeemen recognized were Johnny Hicks, John McDaniel, Perry Cates, John Zachary, Bill Seth and Roy Cates.

Special plaques for many years of faithful service to Pack 130 were awarded to Bill and Sarah Edwards and Bill and Pat Seth.

Entertainment was provided by the Sidewalk Clowns, a local Boy Scout troop. They presented many humorous skits, but the favorite was "The Ugliest Monster."

John Hicks and Doug Williams both "fell dead" when they viewed the monster. However, when Cubmaster Bill Edwards looked at the hideous creature, it was the monster who succumbed.

Bill Edwards was then declared "The Ugliest Monster," much to the delight of the Cubs of Pack 130.

Many Cub Scouts were presented with awards during the special ceremonies which were held, including a candlelight ceremony for boys receiving Bobcat, Wolf and Arrow of Light Badges.

Bobcat Awards were earned by: Bobby Winters, Wesley Groves, Daryl Williams, Jay Newkirk, Shay Bowling, Danny Hawkins and Shawn Bartz.

Wolf Awards were presented to: Mike Winters, Ronnie McClean, Hal Simpson, Shane Palmer, Ricky Winters, Steve Norrod and Clay Sutton.

Receiving Arrow Points were: Steve Norrod, Clay Sutton and Mike Cunningham.

Arrow of Light Awards were given to: Dewayne Hollis, Sam Pender, Mike Morgan and Kevin Smith. The Arrow of Light is the highest award presented in Cub Scouting and is the only award worn on the Boy Scout uniform which was earned in the Cub Scout program.

The program was concluded by Bert Day, who spoke on entering Scouts.

REMEMBER THE SCOUT Circus which will be held on March 20th. Entertainment for the three-ring circus will be provided by all of the local Boy and Cub Scout Troops.

If you haven't been contacted and would like to buy tickets for the event, please call Bill Edwards at 352-3136.

PTA AREA COUNCIL met on Monday, March 1st in the Amarillo School Administration Building. Election of new officers was held and Troyce Mulherin, former Gene Howe PTA President, was elected as Third Vice President. Mrs. Sue Howard of Bushland Independent School District will serve as Council President next year.

An informative program on child abuse was presented by Betty Swearingen of the Department of Public Welfare. She pointed out that we are required by law to inform the Welfare Department of child abuse incidents.

Failure to report such occurrences is a misdemeanor and could result in a fine of up to $500 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

After a slide presentation showing many serious cases of children who had been beaten and abused, Mrs. Swearingen told the PTA members that over 82 complaints of child abuse were turned into her office in 1975. This figure is for Randall and Potter Counties.

Mrs. Swearingen also told the group about the many methods used by the Welfare Department to help both the child and the families where child abuse occurs.

BRUCE KENNEDY AND Phillip Seideman, both CHS students, enjoyed a weekend of fishing and exploring in Colorado. The boys took advantage of the school holiday last Friday, leaving for the mountains on Thursday and returning last Sunday.

Bruce says the fishing was "horrible" — they didn't catch any — but they did enjoy "Jeep trailing" in the mountains.

You can get Milogard® herbicide on about as early as you can put a tractor in the field.

Preplant Milogard with or without your liquid fertilizer or put it on any time thereafter until just before the sorghum and weeds come up . . .

We recommend it. The earlier the better — as early as two to four weeks before planting. Or later, Milogard kills weeds any time in the preemergence period. Fit it to your schedule. But call in your order now.

By PAUL SAMMONS
Ass't. County Agent

Well, the month of February is by us all — I hope you had a nice one. February was a busy one for me! 4-H meetings were conducted by Jowell, Randell, and the Randall Longhorns. The new officers of the Longhorns are: Jody Detten, president; Mark Cox, vice president; Debbie Detten, secretary-treasurer; Mary Jo Turpin, reporter; Mitch Carthel, 4-H Council delegate; Donnie Trammell, 4-H alternate council delegate.

Adult Readers (organizational and project): Mr. Wendell Trammell, Mrs. Shelley Robinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turpin.

Congratulations on your new offices. I know you all will be fine leaders!

The Jr. and Sr. livestock judging teams are coming along really well. I am proud of you all! We had a workout on Friday, Feb. 27. We set up and judged a class of market lambs. Scores were taken and will count as a part of overall scores.

STEER FEEDERS!!

On Saturday, March 20, 1976 at 2 p.m., Dr. John McNeill of WTSU will give a steer feeding, fitting, selection, and showing clinic at the Bull Barn in Canyon. All steer and heifer feeders need to be there. Put it on your calendar. I am holding these clinics for your own benefit, so you can learn. The same day will also be a weigh-in day. Bring your calves. Please spend time in gentling your calf so we can eliminate any rodeos at this clinic. Steers and heifers on feed now are:

1. Randy Deckard — Charolais-Angus X.
2. Guy Osborn — Charolais-Angus X.
3. Mitch Carthel — Hereford and Charolais-Hereford X.
4. David Winters — Hereford.
5. Michael Tucek — Charolais-Angus X.
6. Larry Holes — Angus Heifer.

I hope everyone doing a Method Demonstration is making progress. If you need help, call me or come by my office. Plan to give your demonstrations at your next club meeting. You can even practice by giving it to your parents or friends.

Have a nice week!!

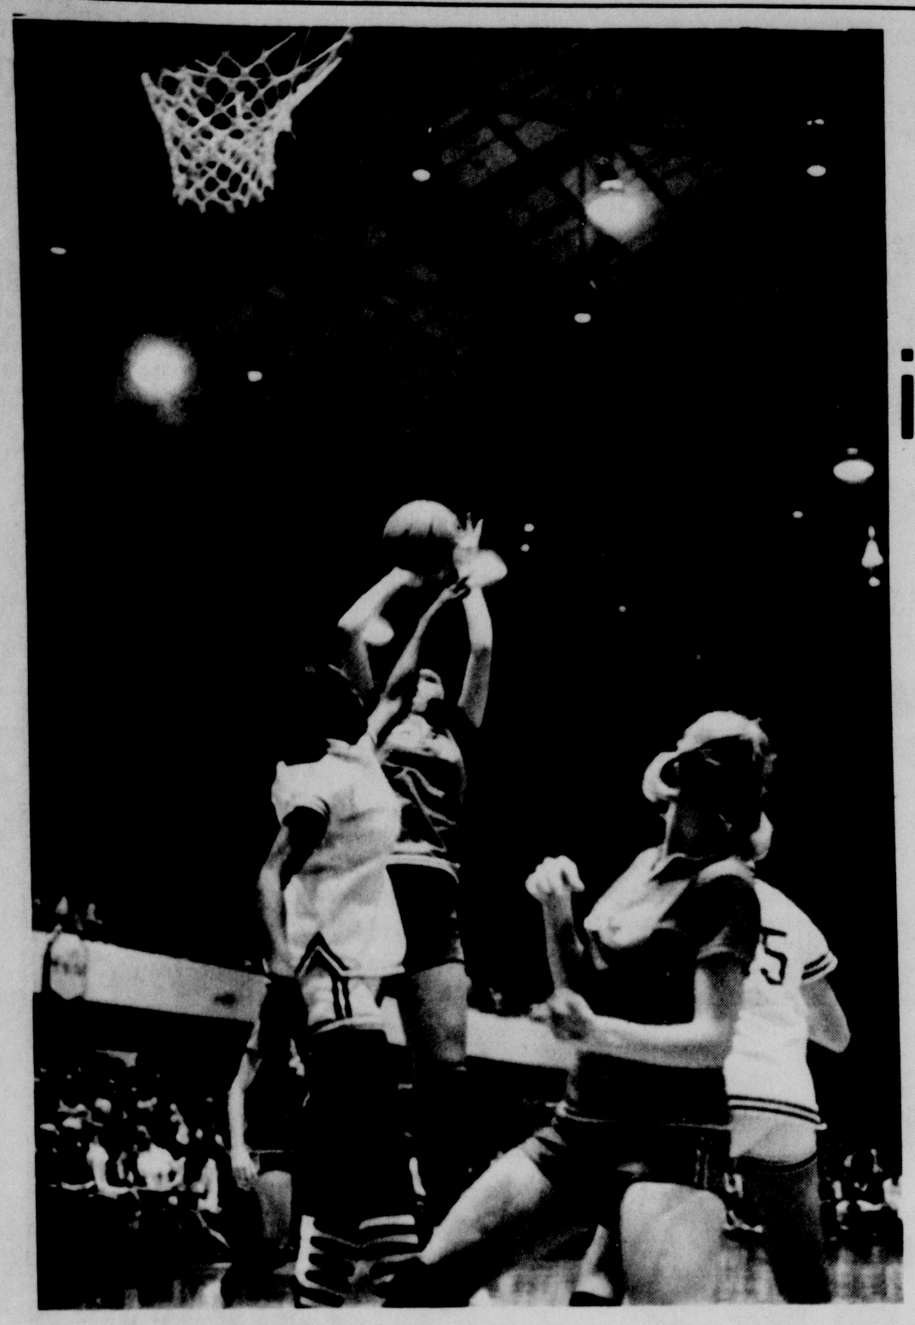
Girl Eagles lose state bid in 64-59 battle with Midway

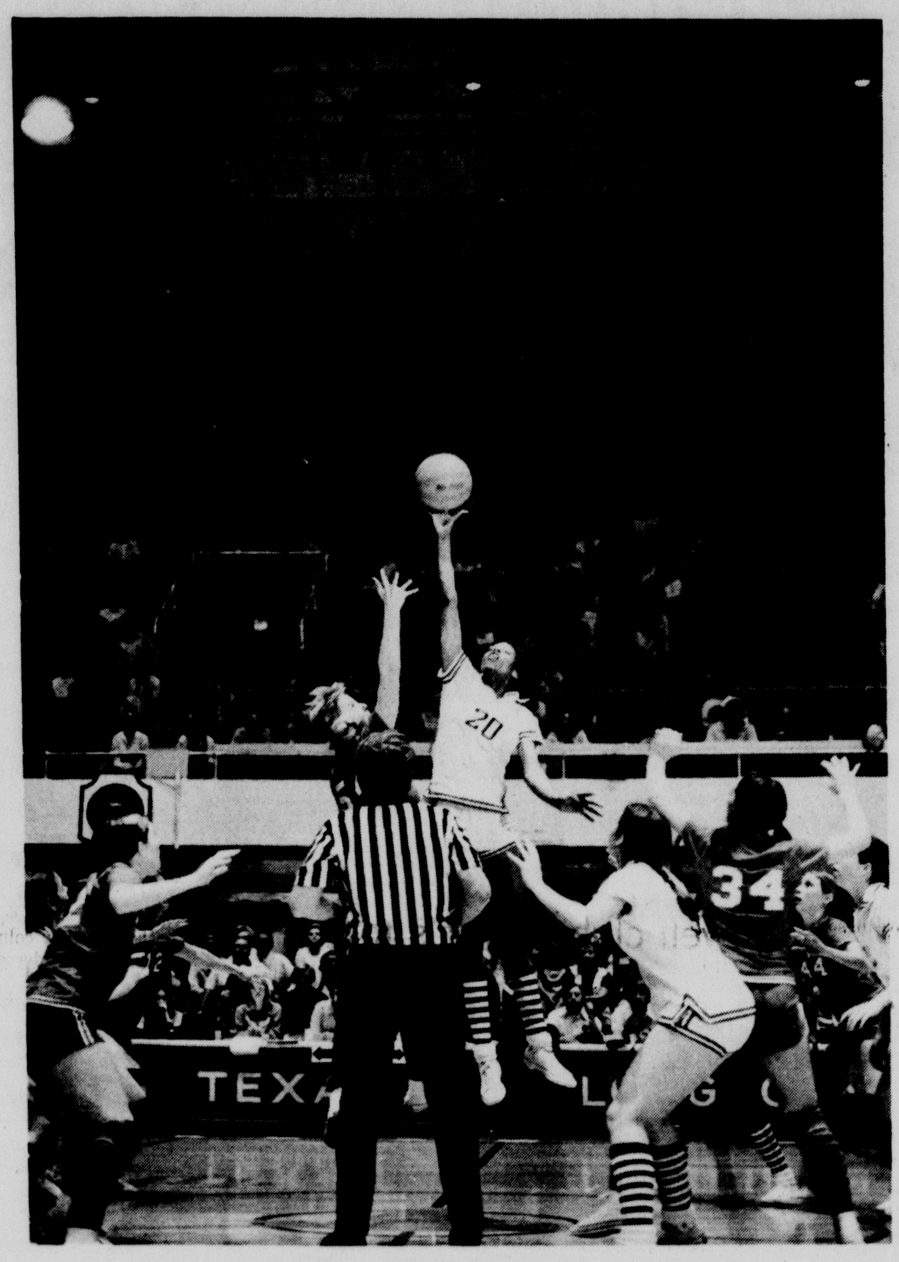
Canyon's Girl Eagles just couldn't pull out the win Saturday night as they fell for the second straight year to Waco Midway 64-59 in the state championship tournament in Austin.

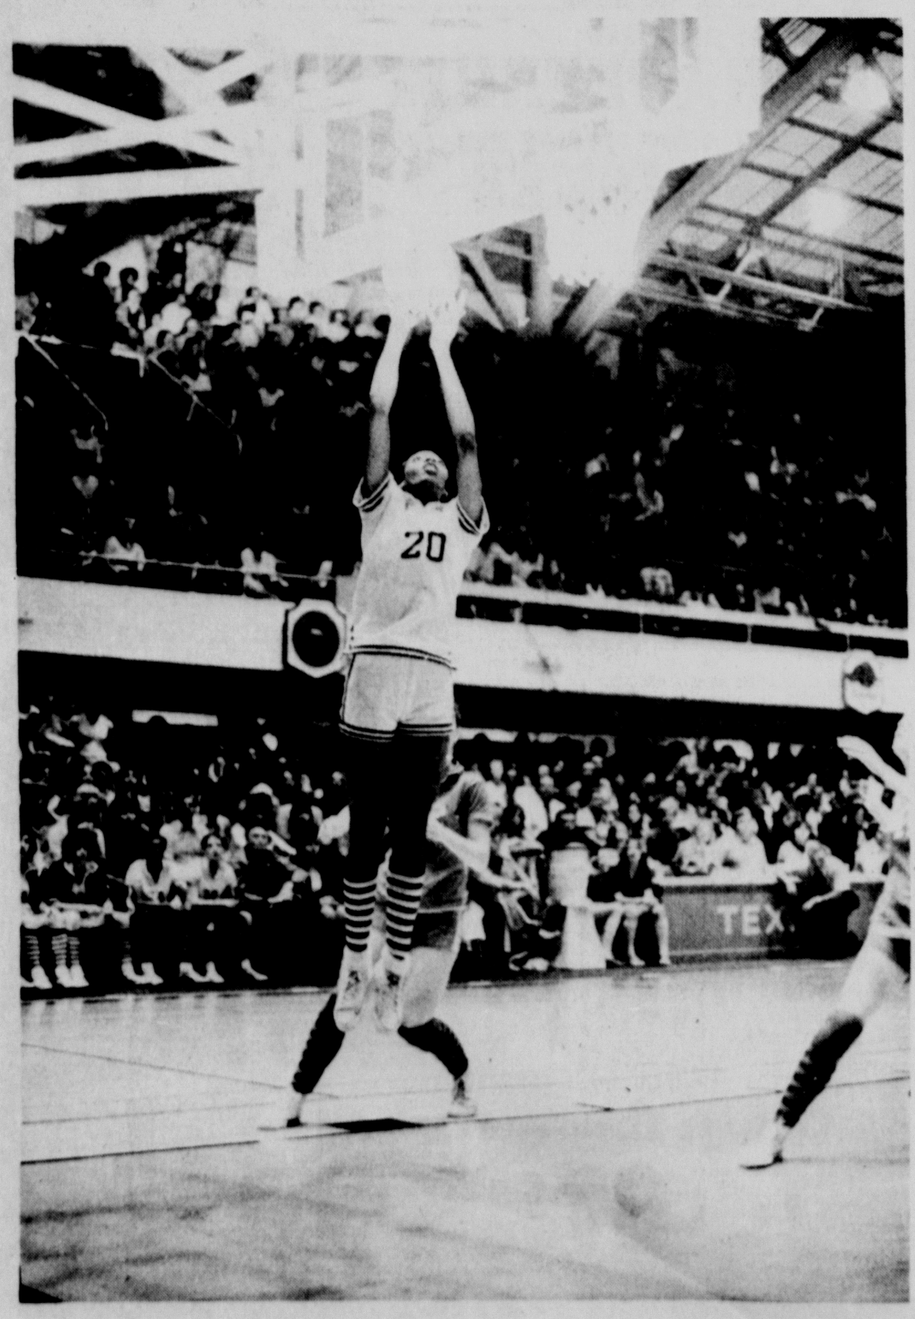
The Pantherettes had downed the girls 60-52 during the finals in 1975.

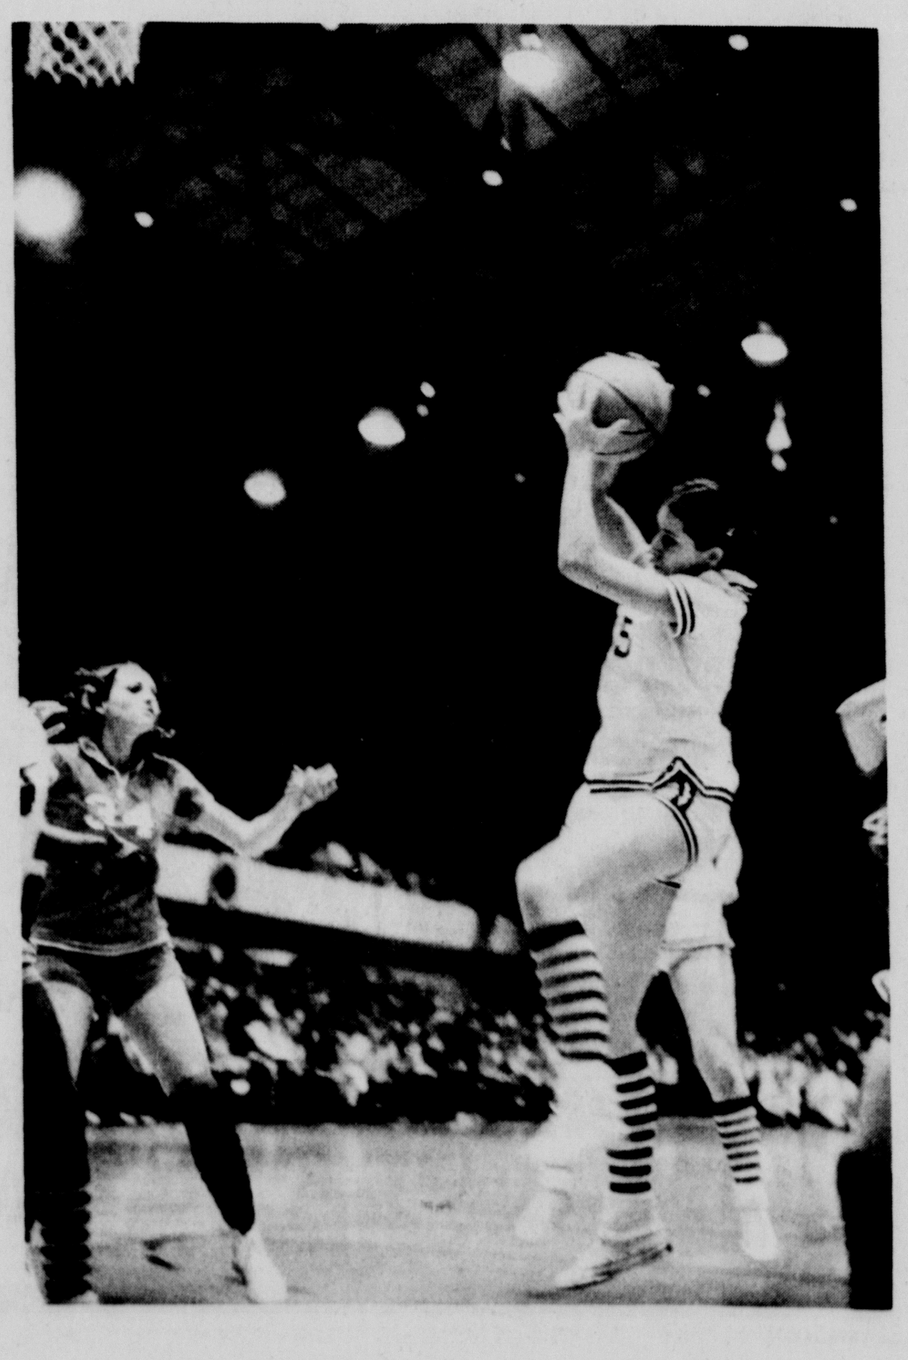
Canyon's Robena Johnson, number 20 in these photos, hit 38 points during the finals to lead the Canyon team.

Photos are by David McReynolds, a West Texas State University student and son of Stratford Star Publisher Dave McReynolds.









Mary Fritch, seated, and other university students from left, Oralia Cervantes, Connie Flores and Florence Carey were evaluating the entries in the Sixth Grade Science Fair at Rex Reeves Elementary School Tuesday afternoon.

Eagles win one, lose one to open baseball season

Canyon split their first two baseball games, downing Palo Duro 12-6 in the season opener Monday and then losing to Hereford 11-6 on Tuesday.

In both games, the Eagles' scorebook was heavy with errors, but powerful hitting overcame the faulty fielding against Palo Duro. Canyon had 15 hits and committed four errors against the 4A school while Palo Duro had only five hits and gave up three errors.

Ron Hickman, Canyon left-hander, struck out 15 Palo Duro batters, and, going to the plate himself, added a double to the team total.

Matt Madewell knocked a home run in the fifth inning and other big Eagle hits came with Joe Luquette, who hit a triple, Jay Huey, with two doubles and Terry Mick, who hit a double.

Palo Duro led off the scoring in the first inning while Canyon remained scoreless. With another Palo Duro run in the top of the second, Canyon trailed 2-0.

But Hickman started the Eagles victory, blasting a double and then went to third on a single by Jonathan Hull. Mick drove in two runs with a double and, with Madewell on base by a fielder's choice, Luquette scored both runners with his triple and then came home on a single by Huey. The Eagles led 5-2 and kept their edge for the rest of the game.

The Eagles also hit well against Hereford, collecting nine hits to the Whitefaces' six, but errors dampened the Canyon effort.

Madewell led the hitting with two doubles and a single and Hull had a double and a single.

In a big first inning, Hereford scored five runs against right-hander Hull and Canyon gained one run scored on Madewell's double.

In the second inning, the Eagles added two more runs. Tracy Martin began with a single, backed up by a single by Randy Langen and a double by Hull.

Hereford went scoreless in the second inning but made up for it in the third, gaining four more runs on three hits and four errors.

Hull gave up 11 runs in the first four innings, but Martin, who took over on the mound in the fifth, held the Whitefaces scoreless for the rest of the game.

Canyon added runs in the fourth, sixth and seventh innings but never made up the difference.

The Eagles play in the Pampa tournament on Friday and then play Palo Duro again Saturday there. The next Eagle home game is Monday against Caprock.

WTSU prof. to give talk

Dr. John R. Brooks, Jr., West Texas State University assistant professor of business administration, will present four papers in March to two Southwestern associations at their annual meetings in San Antonio.

At the Southwestern Marketing Association meeting, Brooks will present "Marketing Experiments and the Choice of Statistics," a description of statistical measures used in marketing experimentation, and "The Marketing of Selected Educational Services to an Adult Market: Strategic Considerations."

Blood pressure tests set tonite for Sr. Citizens

Canyon Senior Citizens will be given the opportunity for free blood pressure tests to be taken this evening preceeding the group's weekly potluck supper.

The testing will begin at 6 p.m. at the Canyon Community Center with nursing department students from West Texas State University providing the service.

The regular weekly supper will begin at 6:30 p.m. All residents aged 55 and above are invited to join the group at any weekly meeting.

'50 team due honors

The 1950 State Champion Canyon Eagles basketball team will be honored Saturday during the final round of the 1975 basketball championship match in Austin.

The team members who have travelled to Austin will be presented during half time of the 7 p.m. championship game at Gregory Gym on the University of Texas campus.

Team members include Coach George C. Scott of Houston; Richmond Payne of Happy; Troy Burrus of Amarillo; Bob Busteed of Bradley, Ill.; Billy Samples of Hurst; Bob McClendon of Amarillo; Harrell Slack of Garland; Garland Butler of Richardson; Ray Burrus of Lipscomb; Billy Morton of Dallas; Joe Abbott of Canyon; Carl Crow of Canyon; Bob Ratliff of Canyon; and Bruce Winn of Canyon.

Coach Scott left Canyon in 1950 to serve as an assistant at Texas Tech. He then went to Houston where he was an assistant coach at Milby until 1959. He is now retired from the oil business.

Troy Burrus, twice on the all-border conference team from WTSU, is now a vocational counsellor at Palo Duro High in Amarillo.

Jowell clubwomen's topic involves metric measures

Jowell Home Demonstration Club met in Happy Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F.E. Culp with Becky Hall, county extension agent, presenting a program on the metric system.

As explained by Mrs. Hall, the metric system is now being introduced into the school system and she discussed the basic metric measurements for the clubwomen.

Mrs. Tom Wilhelm conducted the business meeting which included a council report giving the plans for the upcoming May Day luncheon. Mrs. Wilhelm also reported on a bicentennial luncheon to be held at West Texas State University April 24 for selection of outstanding women for distinguished service.

It was announced that the club's president was one of the delegates elected to attend the district THDA meetings in Perryton.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Tom Wilhelm, A.C. Miller, Ervin Davis, Earl Davis, F.E. Culp and the agent, Becky Hall.

Next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Ron Hufnagle for a program on freezing of fruits and vegetables.

Student avers faith in newspaper story

"I have great faith in America" was the comment beneath the picture of West Texas State University student Barbara McBride of Littlefield in the Jan. 5 Voices of America section of the "Christian Science Monitor" newspaper.

Miss McBride was interviewed by Roderick Nordell, the Monitor's assistant chief editorial writer, who traveled more than 6,000 miles by bus and plane to record the thoughts of American nationwide.

Roderick said "I rang doorbells on mobile homes in Canyon, Texas; visited a Rotary Club in Portland; telephoned the people who gave the previous night's posh parties as reported in a San Diego society column; went to a Mexican border area to a bare gymnasium where a farmworkers' theatre company was performing; paid a call on a radio station's 'citizen of the day' in Fort Smith, Arkansas; hung around an employment office, pool halls, a laser-beam light show, a delicatessen, an architects' convention, a cowboy museum . . ."

And he reported that he found Americans entering this bicentennial year with "pride, and some shame about their country's past; dismay, and some satisfaction, about its present; and uneasiness, and a quenchless residue of confidence, about its future."

Miss McBride is the daughter of Mrs. Ethyl McBride, 714 E. 16th, Littlefield.

Fire truck repair tops priority during meeting

BY DORIS McKEE

IT APPEARS THAT March roared in like a lion this year. The first day was very cloudy and windy but very nice and warm.

Here's hoping that the ole saying will prove to be true and March will go out like a lamb.

THERE WAS A meeting last Tuesday night in the recreation building of several persons interested in getting the Siesta Volunteer Department and Auxiliary back into full swing. There was a very good turnout.

It was decided that first off the fire truck would be checked out by some of the men and the first project to get it running good. Any repairs are to be handled by some of the tenants.

It was also discussed that we get someone from the fire dept. to come out and give some do's and don't's in case a trailer caught on fire. We also hope to get some instruction on how to fight fires.

Another meeting was set for Tuesday night March 2nd. Each family that was present on the 24th, was asked to bring at least one neighbor to the Tuesday meeting.

THERE ARE STILL several people here down with the flu.

Sharon Shipley was home last week with the flu. Her mother, Mrs. J.R. Hancock of Plainview came up to help out. On Thursday she took Brent, Sharon and Roscoe's small son home to Plainview.

Late Thursday night Roscoe took Sharon to Palo Duro Hospital where she was admitted. Seems her flu had gone into double pneumonia. We want to wish her a speedy recovery.

Also we would like to extend belated birthday wishes to Sharon whose birthday was either Feb. 22nd or 23rd.

SYLVIA HOLLIFIELD HAD a Fashion Two-Twenty party last Thursday night in the recreation building at 7 p.m.

Those attending were Ann Rebeaud, Bobbie Jean Hite, Diane Hoffman, Doris McKee, Brenda Cameron, Mary Lou Klum, Jo Fulkerson, Lori Hollifield and Lori Hite. June Ratliff was the Fashion Two-Twenty representative.

CALLED CAROLYN BAYS to see what had been going on around their place. She and Larry had guests a couple of weeks ago. Betty (Carolyn's sister) and Weldon Massey of Dallas came for a short visit and also brought Carrie Rich, Carolyn's mom with them.

Carrie is staying with the Bays for a while now. Other recent visitors to the Bays' home were Rita and Michael Clark and Ruth Belyen, all of Hale Center. Rita and Ruth are Carolyn's nieces.

TALKED TO JO Fulkerson on Monday and learned that she had been to Colorado Springs this weekend.

She finally got to see that new granddaughter. Jo said, Jena is a beautiful baby and they really hit it off good.

Of course, Jo enjoyed seeing daughter, Jeri, and her hubby, Ken Weber. All in all, Jo said it was a real nice weekend.

* * *

WE WANT TO extend our deepest sympathy to Sylvia Hollifield who flew to California the end of last week to attend the funeral for her sister, Rose.

THE BOY SCOUTS had a swimming party at the WT Activity Center last Thursday night. They really did have a great time.

Those attending were: Tod McKee, Marty Hoffman, Roger Robertson, Shannon and Randy Jones, John Joseph, Paul Qualls, Edward, Mark and Phillip Rebeaud and Dennis Weed.

Scout leader, Charlie Carter, and assistant James Jones, also attended. The scouts will meet tonight at the recreation building.

WELL, AM FINALLY getting the jump on a birthday. Would like very much to wish Pat Reed a Happy Birthday, come Tuesday, March 9th.

RAYLENE QUALLS CALLED to tell me about her weekend. Seems she and Diana Oakley decided to load up the kids, Paul, Jr., Guy and Jamey Qualls; Greg, Sherri, Diane and Debbie Oakley, and go to Meadow, Texas where they visited Raylene's grandmother, Alma Wright.

They went on to Brownfield where they visited Raylene's folks, Raymond and Kay DeBusk. They also went to Denver City, Texas where they visited Diana's mother, Mary Jones and family. Raylene said they had a real good time.

MYSELF, TOD AND DeAnn, and Mary Hoffman went to Lubbock over the weekend. We visited my mother, Mrs. E.M. Weaver, and did some shopping, and visited my in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. V.M. McKee. We had a real nice weekend.

* * *

TALKED TO MARY Lopez a few days ago. Seems she and Rick are just waiting around now for that little bundle of joy to put in it's appearance. This will be their first child.

* * *

GUESS IT IS time to put down the ole pen for this week but will be back next time, so Keep On Reading.

Thought for this week, "Let your heart be your guide."

See ya. Doris McKee 355-4133.
